Candidates are strongly recommended to be present until the end of the programme.

Onsite Registration

The candidate must register at the EBU desk (1st floor) 40 up to 10 minutes before the scheduled start of his/her examination session. The following registration procedure is applicable:

- The candidate presents a valid passport or identity card;
- The candidate hands in his/her cell phone/iPad.

The candidate receives a badge (with EBU CID number and photo) which must be worn till the end of the programme.

Five minutes before the examination session the candidate is accompanied to the examination room (2nd floor) by one of the EBU hosts.

Policy Electronic Equipment

The use of electronic equipment (cell phone, iPad, laptop, etc.) is not allowed in the examination or waiting rooms/area. The candidate will have to leave his/her cell phone/iPad at the EBU registration desk when registering. The return policy is as follows:

- The candidates of examination sessions 1, 2, 3 and 5,6,7 will receive their equipment before leaving the waiting room.
- The candidates of examination sessions 4 and 8 collect their equipment at the EBU registration desk (1st floor) after their session.

Lunch

Lunch and refreshments are available at the hotel's restaurant at the candidate's expense.

Examination Sessions

There are eight examination sessions, four in the morning and four in the afternoon. The candidate is examined by a team of two urologists and will be presented four clinical cases representing a wide spectrum of urologic practice. The content of the morning and afternoon cases is different. Each examination session lasts maximum 55 minutes. An observer may be present.

Sequestering

To ensure a fair examination the candidates of examination sessions 1,2,3 and 5,6,7 will have to remain at the venue until the examination sessions 4 and 8 have started. The respective candidate is accompanied to the designated waiting room once his/her examination session has ended. In the waiting room the use of electronic equipment is NOT allowed; candidates not adhering to this policy may be disqualified. In the waiting room drinks will be served.

Announcement Results

The Examination Committee Chairman will first announce the CID numbers of those candidates who have failed the examination.

Next, the other candidates are congratulated on having passed the examination.

Presentation FEBU Diploma

There will be three desks divided by CID number. Candidates can collect the (provisional) diploma at the respective desk upon handing in of the badge.

The following policy applies for successful candidates.

- Certified Urologist: Will receive the FEBU Diploma and may use the FEBU title.
- Final-year Resident: Will receive a Provisional Diploma which states that the holder is entitled to obtain the FEBU Diploma, and may use the FEBU title, only after having submitted a copy of the Certificate of Accreditation in Urology at the EBU office.

Note: In case a Final-Year Resident provides the EBU office with a copy of the national Certificate of Accreditation in Urology by e-mail (ebu@ebu.com) on or before 12 June 2019, he/she will be presented the official FEBU Diploma instead.

Dress Code
